John F. Tangredi brings strategic leadership to expense automation software management team extensive experience in company management

Irvine, Calif., April 15, 2008 – ExpensAble, an expense automation management software company, has hired John F. Tangredi to serve as its president and chief executive officer. With more than 15 years of experience in the service and software industries, Tangredi is responsible for setting and implementing ExpensAble's strategic goals and objectives.

"It was important for ExpensAble to find someone with a very unique set of skills and experiences," said Bob Allison, Innovate Partners. "John brings the right blend of in-the-trenches work experience and strategic planning to the team."

Before joining ExpensAble, John was chief operating officer of Alteer Corp. While there, John led strategic plan development and execution. In addition, he evaluated and analyzed the company's VAR channel strategy and implemented a plan to streamline operations. During his eight-year tenure, John held several positions where he executed on a national growth plan and chaired the pricing, compliance and security committee.

"I'm thrilled to join the ExpensAble team," said Tangredi. "I am looking forward to continuing the company's trend of providing customer focused solutions and extraordinary customer service while implementing strategies to grow the business."

In addition, Tangredi is a volunteer on the quality care committee at St. Joseph's Hospital in Orange, Calif. and he serves on the board of directors for the Todd Anglin Home for Children.
